

9-10-10

The gospel fest was a exciting experience for me, and I enjoy the singing, and the refreshing, and the foods was good, but most of all the spiritual event, and the fellowship and the love that I share with each individual.

Next year I look forward to participate with the gospel festival because today I love Gods and the way he here my life today.

